SPEC: Both men and women, mid-30's to 40's, white, non-announcery, good actors that can deliver the "business" as well as sell the idea of "escapism".

ANNCR: In the middle of Michigan's beautiful Harbor Country, there's a world where you can lose yourself, but win even larger. A world where the stakes you play for can be just as big as the steaks you dine on. Where the toughest decisions will be between choosing which of the 3,000 slots and nearly 100 table games you'll play first. Or which of the five unique restaurants you'll want to dine in. A world where for a few hours, an evening or a whole weekend, your everyday world is forgotten and you remember how to have the time of your life again. That world is Four Winds Casino Resort. Just 60 miles from Chicago. But a world away from your everyday. Four Winds Casino Resort. Live Larger. You must be 21 years of age. Please play responsibly.
