

Trait: Happy

"Everyday man"

This everyday man is ready for some action. His goal is to go through the entire course and grab the big prize. With that kind of money, his life will be a tad less "every day".

Additional Notes: happy – blonde haired, blue eyed – nice guy – your best friend.

I'm just a normal guy with a normal life. But today I'm going to put a dent in the universe.

I am ABNORMALLY normal. Which is more common than you might think.

I'm repping the average American! I have one wife, one dog and two point four kids.

Today I'm going to win this for all the completely normal people out there!

This is pretty thrilling. Normally what I do for fun is have a friend over for laundry folding time.

Here's where I'm coming from. The most thrilling thing I've ever done is make some tea and take a nap.
