NASCAR
Script #1

Please Give Two Reads:

VO: Drivers entering the NASCAR Nationwide Series have a lot to learn about pressure. For one, there's over 400 pounds of it on them when they take a turn. Then there's pressure applied to them from the other drivers. The thousands of fans. Not to mention themselves. What they finally learn is, you either get crushed...or you outrun it.

(Please deliver this line like an announcer)
The NASCAR Nationwide Series. Where drivers get schooled.

SPECS:

VO: Male, late 30's mid 40's, real, authentic, voice should have authority and common sense wisdom about it.
